Wisconsin Safety Council Seeks Applications for Safety Excellence Awards

Applications Being Accepted Through January 15th

The Wisconsin Corporate Safety Council and the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development are now accepting applications for the 16th Annual Wisconsin Corporate Safety Awards.

The 2009 Wisconsin Corporate Safety Awards are judged in categories based on both the size and type of organization. The awards competition involves a statistical phase and a subjective phase. Companies must report incidence rates for the 2007-2009 calendar years and finalists (announced in February) provide subjective reports on safety leadership, employee participation, safety program implementation, training, accomplishments and goals.

Seventeen grand awards winners will be presented at the Awards Dinner held in conjunction with the 68th Annual Wisconsin Safety & Health Conference Expo, on Tuesday, April 27th, 2010 at the Kalahari Convention Center in Wisconsin Dells.

Governor Candidate Forum
Monona Terrace Convention Center, Madison
February 22, 2010

Jobs will dominate the debate in Wisconsin in 2010 as our state charts a course for long-term prosperity. Next year, Wisconsin will choose our governor. And, for the first time since 1982, there will be no incumbent on the ballot. In this exciting time, WMC has organized the first economic forum for candidates for governor from both parties. The next day, WMC will sponsor a straw poll of business leaders to see which candidate has the support of business leaders.

The Forum of Governor Candidates will feature:

Former U.S. Rep. Mark Neumann (confirmed)
Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker (confirmed)
Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett (invited)

A respected panel of questioners includes:

Brady Williamson of Godfrey & Kahn, SC
Michael Knetter, UW Dean, School of Business

The Forum will take place on Monday, February 22 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm at the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center in Madison. Register online; cost is $25.

We urge you to attend. Bring your friends and colleagues to learn about the candidates' ideas for jobs, to meet with business leaders, and perhaps attend the Business Day in Madison program the next day.

Contact Jane Algiers or Jim Pugh at (608) 258-3400 for more information.

Monona Terrace Convention Center, Madison
February 22, 2010

Jobs will dominate the debate in Wisconsin in 2010 as our state charts a course for long-term prosperity. Next year, Wisconsin will choose our governor. And, for the first time since 1982, there will be no incumbent on the ballot. In this exciting time, WMC has organized the first economic forum for candidates for governor from both parties. The next day, WMC will sponsor a straw poll of business leaders to see which candidate has the support of business leaders.

The Forum of Governor Candidates will feature:

Former U.S. Rep. Mark Neumann (confirmed)
Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker (confirmed)
Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett (invited)

A respected panel of questioners includes:

Brady Williamson of Godfrey & Kahn, SC
Michael Knetter, UW Dean, School of Business

The Forum will take place on Monday, February 22 from 5:00 to 7:00 pm at the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center in Madison. Register online; cost is $25.

We urge you to attend. Bring your friends and colleagues to learn about the candidates' ideas for jobs, to meet with business leaders, and perhaps attend the Business Day in Madison program the next day.

Contact Jane Algiers or Jim Pugh at (608) 258-3400 for more information.
