More Changes

As our nation continues to struggle with these difficult economic times, our chamber, too, has found it necessary to make hard decisions. That being said, Thursday, February 4th, will be Kathryn Wagner's last day as the chamber's office manager.

She has been a wonderful addition to our chamber with her marketing expertise and resources. We will truly miss her!

If you have chance to speak with Kathryn this week, please wish her all the best in her future endeavors.

I provide home staging and interior decorating services. I specialize in Granicrete countertops, complete room make-overs and window treatments.
